Profile

Mitch Thompson is a director of digital for CliftonLarsonAllen LLP (CLA), focused primarily in working with state and local government clients. He works with clients to support data management, grants management, workflow automation, predictive analytics, and machine learning. Collaborating with clients to make sense of their data to help make more effective, real-time decisions are his priority. Mitch is a retired police chief, having served for 29 years in various leadership roles for most of his career. Since 2018, he has been in technology consulting for government clients at the federal, state, and local levels. His career has allowed him to be on both sides of the project continuum, as the client and the vendor, giving him a unique capability to help drive successful outcomes.
